

Pr. Moussa Bongoyok was born in Cameroon, Central Africa. He is the President of Institut Universitaire de Développement International (IUDI) based in Cameroon but serving all the French speaking nations in Africa.

He holds a PhD in Intercultural Studies from Fuller Graduate Schools in the USA. He pursued post-doctoral studies in UK on Islam and Development. His areas of research and teachings are holistic development, intercultural studies and qualitative studies, religion and peacebuilding.

He is married to Priscille Bongoyok and they have three children.

Sincerely,

Moussa.