

Dr. B. S. Ponmudiraj is currently the Adviser with the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC), India. He is also incharge of International Cooperation / Affairs at NAAC. Prior to joining NAAC, as an Assistant Professor in Statistics he was teaching in Christ College, Bangalore, Loyola Evening College, Chennai and Loyola College (Autonomous), Chennai. He had been a visiting faculty to Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel National Institute of Textile Management, Coimbatore.

He has 30 years of teaching and educational administrative experience. His special interests are training of assessors for quality assurance and quality literacy. He has published papers in journals and also articles in books. He also presented papers in international and national seminars/conferences. He had organized national level Assessors Training Programmes and a trainer for the same.

He had been associated with an international research project. Ponmudiraj has been an invited speaker for academic activities.

He had published reports on higher education in specific areas. He has visited about 350 Colleges and Universities in India.

He has visited the United Kingdom, Vietnam, Bangladesh, Thailand, Australia, Cambodia, Qatar, France, Belgium, Spain, Switzerland and Nepal.

He underwent training in Australia for Quality Assurance (QA) Peer Review (PR) and visited a couple of Australian Universities. As an international expert he was a member of the Accreditation Committee for the Department of Architecture, American International University Bangladesh, Dhaka; Accreditation Committee for four Colleges in Nepal; trainer for QA PR Workshop at Hanoi, Vietnam; host/coordinator for many international delegations on behalf of NAAC.

bspsamson@gmail.com