

Abigail Rivka Kramers – Eendragt
Director
Accreditation Agency Curaçao (AAC)
Educational services

Abigail Rivka Kramers - Eendragt is the Managing Director of the Accreditation Agency Curaçao (AAC), a private independent accreditation agency established in Curaçao offering program and institutional accreditation.

Abigail is highly motivated, friendly, dynamic, an experienced communicator and leader. Competent in the Social area (developing community projects) and Educational area (QA procedures).

Before becoming the Director of the AAC, Abigail started as the Office Manager of the AAC. Abigail was introduced into the Higher Education Area and has developed an increased interest in Quality Assurance. After a year she was promoted as Managing Director and is now working hard to offer a high-quality QA service locally and internationally. Abigail is very passionate and has discussed various plans with the Ministry of Education (MoE) in Curaçao and has requested a collaboration which could financially and academically benefit the Higher Education area in Curaçao.

Abigail has a bachelor's in social sciences and legal services from the University of Curaçao (UoA) and has worked as an inspection officer and Social worker.