

Biographical Note

Dr Farrukh Idrees

PhD, MBA, MSc TQM (Bradford U.K.), CSSBB, Qualified Auditor ISO 9001:2008; BS 18001:2007; ISO 14001:2004

Director QEC, National University of Computer & Emerging Sciences, Islamabad

Dr Farrukh Idrees

An Experienced Quality Professional with proven quality management, organizational, commercial & financial skills developed in higher educational institutes and corporate organizations. Quality and Productivity expert with specialized focus on meeting and exceeding the academic standards, institutional performance management, and higher productivity. A team player with strong leadership & interpersonal skills to enhance overall productivity. Have more than a decade of post graduate managerial work experience in managing quality assignments of Universities, service sector and manufacturing sector organizations. Certified Six Sigma Black Belt with distinction. Worked as a six sigma black belt team lead/players in a project with General Electric, U.K. Successfully launched Quality Enhancement Cells of two universities of Pakistan. Frequent speaker/author in international conventions for quality management at national and international levels. Acted as a consultant of Asian Productivity Organization-Japan regarding providing training and consultancy services to Fiji Higher Education Commission and educational institutions of Fiji. Represented Pakistan as quality and productivity expert in an international workshop conducted by Asian Productivity Organization-Japan in Indonesia. Able to use a wide variety of analytical tools to identify and exploit market opportunities for academic entrepreneurship. Excellent social skills, able to work co-operatively across functions and in multi cultural groups. Creative, and enjoy thinking cross functionally for continual improvements. Life time member of national productivity organization of Pakistan. Member of Rawalpindi Chamber of Commerce since 2005. Acted as a member of standing committee for social services constituted by Rawalpindi Chamber of Commerce and Industries, Pakistan.