

A Biographical Note for Dr Christine Qi

Dr. Christine Qi is the Head and Senior Registrar of Academic Accreditation and Assessment at the Hong Kong Council for Accreditation of Academic and Vocational Qualifications (HKCAAVQ). In her role, she leads academic accreditation exercises, collaborates with educational institutions to implement effective quality assurance and enhancement measures, and contributes to various consultancy projects. She is also actively engaged in digital transformation and knowledge management initiatives within her organisation, driving innovation and operational excellence.

Dr. Qi has almost 20 years of expertise in Hong Kong's vibrant education sector, specialising in quality assurance for self-financed education and training institutions. With a strong background in teaching, programme development, and management, she has effectively collaborated with stakeholders to enhance student learning experiences. She has implemented rigorous quality assurance processes while supporting continuous quality improvement within institutions.

Dr. Qi's academic and professional experience spans Hong Kong, Mainland China, and the United States, giving her a broad understanding of international education systems and frameworks. She is committed to enhancing the quality of education across the Asia-Pacific region and beyond, and she actively seeks to contribute her expertise to the global quality assurance community.

Dr. Qi holds a PhD in Business Administration (Marketing) from the City University of Hong Kong. Outside of her professional commitments, she enjoys reading, traveling, and spending quality time with her family.

Word count: 219 words